GEORGESDAYTON.COM

We have been proudly serving your favorites for over 25 years and pride ourselves on our fast and friendly service. There are many House-made menu items for you to enjoy including our soups, chili and famous Spinach Pie. On behalf of the ownership, management & staff, we sincerely appreciate your continued business and support. Here at George's, you're not just a customer, you're family!

Our story...

Back in the 50's, CharBurger opened the doors as the first in a line of restaurants that would eventually become George's. CharBurger was THE place to be seen on the Dixie Strip and all the cars out cruising would pull around back for car hop service. The interior boasted high vaulted ceilings, large windows and a copper grill hood over 20 feet tall. After CharBurger the Dixie Family Inn took over for a few years in the 70's. Farmer Jacks was next and was a staple in Northridge throughout the 80's. People remember the salad bar, wishing well and dance floor and spent many nights dancing to Country music being played in the corner. Farmer Jacks became Southern Bell for a short time until George Dimitrouleas and his business partner, Chef Mike Giolekas, opened up George's Family Restaurant in 1994. George sold the business to Dino (his son) and Elesha in 2003. Many of Mike's recipes are still being used today including the lemon chicken rice soup, meatloaf and spinach pie. This truly is a family business as George's has a pair of sisters managing operations as well as sets of brothers and cousins working in the back. We also have two mother-daughter teams waiting tables out front! There are many employees who have been at George's since the 90's and many customers who have been dining here since the CharBurger days.

Whether it's your 1st time or your 50th, WELCOME! We hope you love it here as much as we do.
